4. If the gang proves unreasonable and declines to follow a reasonable route, the Sub-Inspector or the Jamedar will immediately move the District Magistrate or the Sub-Divisional Magistrate to pass the necessary order compelling them to do so under Section 43 of the Police Regulation.

5. Large gangs should be prohibited from wandering about the district. No gang containing more than twelve members including men, women and children should be ordinarily allowed to move about the country. Whenever the number exceeds twelve, steps may be taken by the Police to break them into smaller groups by moving the District Magistrate or Sub-Divisional Magistrate to act under Section 43 of the Police Regulation.

6. Two or more constables, according to the strength of the gang, should be detailed to watch the gangs, as they move from place to place and to see that they keep to the declared, or prescribed route. Their sole duty will be to keep the gangs under surveillance. Whenever they notice that the gangs act improperly, or in violation of their declared intentions, or the conditions imposed by the District Magistrate or Sub-Divisional Magistrate, they must forthwith report the facts to the nearest officer in charge of a Police Station for necessary action.

7. When any gang commits any depredation no effort should be spared in bringing the chief offenders to justice for specific crimes or treating them as the law allows under Chapter VIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

8. Police Officers of and above the rank of Jamedars may record the finger impressions of all members of such gangs.

9. Licenses to carry arms shall not be granted to members of these gangs.

10. No Government officer shall give any safe conduct pass, certificate, testimonial or other note of general recommendation to members of these gangs.
